Licences are tacitly renewed, you can suspend your subscription by email no later than 3 working days before the renewal date.

During your subscription period, you can:

- # freely disseminate the component in all your programs and disseminate it as often as you like;*
- # access to the component source code that has been given to you and to a FTP that will allow you to download updates..*

The annual fee shall be paid as long as you disseminate software integrating our components. Non-payment of the fee or the termination of the contract prohibited you to continue to disseminate our components.
